

Washington Kastles Internship 2009

The Washington Kastles, DC's professional tennis team, is looking for disciplined hardworking individuals to help make our second season as much of a success as our first. The Washington Kastles is the newest franchise of Advanta World TeamTennis Pro League, a professional and amateur co-ed tennis league started by Billie Jean King.

Internship Specifics:

- Students will have the opportunity to focus on different areas of interest including:
 - Ticket Sales
 - Sponsorship Sales
 - Merchandise Sales
 - Public Relations
 - Grassroots Campaign
 - Marketing
 - Site Development
 - Player Coordination
 - Game Day Operations
- The internship will begin in May and end Mid-August.
- The internship is full-time. Interns are required to work at all matches and may be required to attend weekend events to promote the team.
- Students are able to earn college credit through the internship program. Monetary compensation is determined on a case by case basis.

About the Washington Kastles

The Washington Kastles enter their second year of Advanta World TeamTennis Pro League (WTT) in July 2009. The Kastles, owned by local entrepreneur Mark Ein, will be led by ten-time Grand Slam singles champion Serena Williams. The 34th season of the Advanta WTT Pro League, founded in 1974 by tennis legend Billie Jean King, runs from July 2-26, concluding with the Advanta WTT Championship Weekend. Throughout the season, the Kastles will actively work with local charities and community organizations to share the mission of WTT and bring the game of tennis to the broader community. For more information about the Kastles or WTT, visit www.washingtonkastles.com or call 202-4TENNIS.

Contact:

Please send your resume, via E-mail, to jobs@washingtonkastles.com

