

Film Intern Opportunities at World TeamTennis

Expectation:

WTT is seeking high achieving interns with experience in film/video editing who are looking to start their careers in sports. WTT will work with respective schools and universities to offer course credit.

Location:

1776 Broadway, Suite 600, New York, NY 10019

WTT Overview:

The 2010 season will be the 35th for the World TeamTennis Pro League, a unique property that showcases world-class tennis in a co-ed team environment. Teams consist of three generations of tennis standouts, including legends, current tour players and up-and-coming tennis pros. Co-founded by Billie Jean King, the League has featured many of the greatest players in tennis history, and is widely viewed as incredible entertainment for families, business clients, general sports fans, and tennis fanatics. There are ten Pro League franchises, and more than 70 team matches take place in July, culminating in the WTT Championship Weekend. For more information please visit <http://www.WTT.com> (World TeamTennis' official website).

Job Description(s):

There are several projects where a resourceful contributor will have opportunities to make a significant impact. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Helping to manage and maintain WTT's historical video library with materials dating back over 30 years.
- 2) Filming and editing video content for WTT's digital platforms.
- 3) Working directly with V.P. of Marketing to help in the development and production of commercial formats for WTT's partner networks, including Tennis Channel, Comcast, and MSG.

Commitment:

The number of hours might vary, depending on terms of agreement for course credit. The Pro League season is scheduled throughout July, but preparations are year-round. Special events are planned for the autumn and winter. We are looking for a minimum of ten hours per week, but could accommodate a 40+ hour per week schedule. Although not required, possession of video editing software is a plus.

Contact:

Please send letter of interest and resume, via E-mail, to Isaac Leamer at ileamer@wtt.com.