

Marketing Internship Job Description

WTT Overview

The WTT was founded by Billie Jean King and since its inception in the 1970's, has grown to 10 teams nationwide. The WTT season consists of 70 regular-season matches held during July. The top team from each conference (Eastern and Western) competes at a championship match.

Our Team

The NY Sportimes is one of the premier franchises of the WTT and is based in New York City, specifically on Randall's Island. Over the years our fans have seen some of the best talent in tennis such as John McEnroe (winner of 7 Grand Slam singles titles), Pete Sampras, Venus Williams, Serena Williams, Anna Kournikova, Martina Navratilova, Martina Hingis, Monica Seles, the Bryan Brothers and Patrick McEnroe (US Davis Cup captain), to name a few.

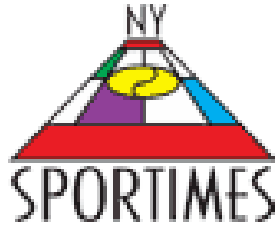

Job Description

We seek 8-10 intern candidates whom should expect to work as directed on various projects. The individual will experience the many facets of a hand-on production of a sports franchise. Duties may include but are not limited to:

- Assist with ticket orders (generating, processing, group sales, etc.).
- Work with General Manager on media exposure, press releases, credentials, player interviews, events, etc.
- Assist in the production of the official program, PA announcements, etc.
- Support coordination of sponsor commitments and fulfillment.
- Distribution of promotional material in the local service area.
- Site preparation, player transportation, autograph sessions and more.
